

Please do not allow cell-phone usage after the aircraft door has been closed. For many people this is a down-time and they deserve some sense of quiet. It is a safety issue during an emergency as a flight crew does not need every passenger reaching for a phone when important safety information is being dispensed. Carolyn Arndt, F.A.